FLAG DAY IS OBSERVED BY ELKS' LODGE

Elks of Honolulu and their friends gathered at the Opera House yesterday afternoon for the Flag Day exercises. Music and addresses made up the program, which proved to be the most successfully carried out and interesting of any the Elks have given. The Opera House, beautifully decorated with flags and ferns, was filled to capacity.

The following was the program: Overture—Star Spangled Banner... Hawaiian Band... Exalted Ruler and Officers... Prayer by the Chaplain... Bro. J. W. Short... Song—Columbia the Gem of the Ocean... Boys' Chorus... Miss Jane L. Winne, leader.

History of the Flag... Raymond C. Brown... Erection of the Liberty Bell... Esquire and Officers... Song—Auld Lang Syne... By the Lodge... Elks' Tribute to the Flag... Bro. Harry E. Murray, P. E. R. Southern Melodies... Hawaiian Band... Recitation—Stand by the Flag... Miss Ben Towse... Address—Bro. George A. Davis... Song—America... Boys' Chorus and Audience.

One of the interesting and impressive features of the program was the erection of the Liberty bell, by the esquire and officers of the lodge. George A. Davis was the orator of the day. He summarized the reverence due the flag with the following paragraph:

"Public opinion may be divided in the north, in the south, in the east in the west, and even in the Hawaiian Islands it is not a rare thing to hear differences of opinion on public questions; but there is no division of opinion with respect to our flag which is typical of our history, our laws, our Constitution and our great achievements. It is what lies behind that flag and supports it. It is the citizenship of the Republic to which we must look in order to form a fitting estimate of our national emblem."

His speech was brilliant and was heartily applauded. The Boys' chorus, which sang several songs under the direction of Miss Jane L. Winne, was unusually good. Harry E. Murray's 'Elks' Tribute to the Flag' and Raymond C. Brown's 'History of the Flag' were the two other addresses, and both deserve special mention.
